

Woodward & Lothrop

New York—WASHINGTON—Paris.

Our business hours until further notice are 8:30 a. m. to 5:30 p. m.

Valentines and Valentine Favors—Main Floor, G Street.

A Special Sale of Traveling Bags and Suit Cases

WE have secured from one of the leading makers, who was overstocked, a lot of bags and suit cases, and offer them at the manufacturer's cost price and less.

They are goods of a strictly high character, and comprise the most desirable leathers, thus rendering this sale of more than ordinary interest. All the popular sizes are represented, but there are in many instances only one of a kind.

We have divided them into lots as follows:

LOT 1—Real Cowhide Traveling Bags, lined with leather and finished with brass lock and catches. Sizes 14 to 18 inches.

$2.95 each. Regular Prices, $4 to $5.

LOT 2—Real Cowhide Grain Leather Traveling Bags, leather lined, leather-covered frames. Sizes, 14, 16, 17, and 18 inches.

$3.95 each. Regular Prices, $6 to $7.

LOT 3—Real Cowhide Traveling Bags, hand sewed, leather lined and finished with double handle—especially suitable for men. Sizes 16, 17 and 18 inches.

$8.50 each. Regular Prices, $14 to $16.

LOT 4—Real Cowhide Suit Cases, brown and russet, in the popular 24-inch size; cloth lined; best brass lock. A well-made, serviceable and slightly case.

$3.95 each. Regular Price, $6 each.

This sale presents a most favorable opportunity to any one who needs a bag or suit case now, or is likely to need such in the near future.

Equitable Bldg.—Basement.

Handled and Hurt Books.

HUNDREDS of volumes that have gone through the Christmas campaign are placed on special tables in the Book Store, classified, arranged for quick selection, and marked at a price only a fraction of the original selling figure.

We mention a few titles:

At 10c each.

Mrs. Leslie Carter as Du Barry. Letters from Florida, by Mrs. Henry Ward Beecher. Bits of Wisdom or Daily Thoughts, by William McKim. Songs of the "G. O. P.," a clever skit in verse, by Philander Johnson, with caricatures by Chandler.

And many others.

At 15c each.

Seen from the Saddle, by Isa C. Cabell. Evening Dress, by William D. Howells. The Register, by William D. Howells. This Picture and That, by Brander Matthews. What's What at Home and Abroad, containing Bill-of-Fare vocabulary.

And many others.

At 25c each.

A Golden Gossip, by Mrs. A. T. D. Whig. Humpbacks and Canterbury Folks, by Mrs. T. Wilberforce. Papa Bouchard, by Molly Elliot Seawell. Chata and Chinata, a novel of Spanish life, by Louise B. Heaven. A Thousand and One Riddles—the best collection of riddles in existence. The Better Way, by Charles Wagner. On Life's Threshold, by Charles Wagner.

And many others.

Main floor—Tenth st.

Demonstrations in Pure Food Dept.

WE direct attention to the following demonstrations in our Pure Food Department, Fifth floor, as of special interest to the housewife and the public generally. Not only are pure foods of the highest quality displayed, but the opportunity is presented to determine, by taste, their individual characteristics. We invite your judgment of the various articles shown.

HUNTLEY & PALMER'S IMPORTED ENGLISH BISCUITS AND CRACKERS. Known throughout the world where choice foods are used.

TETLEY'S CHOICE INDIA AND CEYLON TEAS. In foil and tin packages. Teas of various blends and qualities.

WOODWARD & LOTHROP'S BRANDS OF SELECTED COFFEES. Delicious, aromatic coffees of the highest quality in sealed packages and in bulk. A wide variety of the world's best growths.

McLAREN'S IMPERIAL CREAM AND ROQUEFORT CHEESES AND PEANUT BUTTER. In jars of various sizes.

MINUTE TAPIOCA AND GELATINE. Superior products that may be used in a variety of ways, as shown here.

Fifth floor.

WOODWARD & LOTHROP.

IN THE SOCIAL WORLD

Judiciary Reception at the White House To-night.

A PRETTY NAVAL WEDDING

Miss Lillian Mary Hemphstone becomes the bride of Lieut. Frederick Lansing Oliver—Speaker and Miss Cannon Entertained at Dinner by Secretary and Mrs. Metcalf.

The chief social event to-day will be the reception at the White House, when the President and Mrs. Roosevelt will receive complimentary to the Justices of the Supreme Court.

At the reception to-night, carriages will approach from the north to the east entrance of the White House, opposite the Treasury. Pedestrians will follow the same route. After discharging passengers carriages will be parked around the Ellipse in the White Lot.

The gates will not be open until 9 o'clock. Two carriages will drive under the porte-cochere at the same time. Coachmen will be provided with numbered checks, which must be preserved by them in order to gain admittance to the grounds. Guests will also be provided with tickets of the same numbers as their carriages.

These they should carefully preserve. In order to call their carriages, which will depart from the same entrance. It is requested that the line of carriages be not delayed by paying for carriage service at the entrance. Carriages will be called by electric signal.

After leaving cloaks in the cloak-room, guests are requested to fall in line in the colonnade and pass up the main staircase. The southwest gate will be opened at 8:30 p. m. Guests holding special carriage cards will enter the grounds by that gate, and the house by the door under south portico. Carriages will approach this entrance by Seventeenth street.

The wedding of Miss Lillian Mary Hemphstone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Snowden Lee Hemphstone, and Lieut. Frederick Lansing Oliver, U. S. N., was solemnized last evening at 8 o'clock at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, Rev. George Fisher, pastor officiating. The wedding was followed by a reception at the residence of the bride's parents, in Monroe street.

The church was beautifully decorated with Easter lilies, large clusters of them marking the pews reserved for the families, and tall vases held the blossoms on the altar, which was lighted by wax tapers in antique brass candlesticks.

The bride wore a gown of white tulle and chiffon and fashioned simply on modified empire lines. A coronet of orange blossoms held the tulle veil in place, and the wedding bouquet was a shower of lilies of the valley and white roses. Late in the evening Lieut. and Mrs. Oliver left Washington for a wedding trip.

Last night the Speaker of the House and Miss Cannon were the guests complimentary to whom the Assistant Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Metcalf entertained at dinner.

Senator and Mrs. Morgan G. Bulkeley were dinner hosts of the evening. Capt. Hubert L. Wigmore, U. S. A., was host yesterday at a delightful informal tea at the officers' quarters at the barracks. Mrs. John W. Moore acted as chaperon for the occasion.

The British Ambassador and Mrs. Bryce will leave Washington to-day for a few days in New York.

The personnel of the British Embassy has been augmented by the arrival of Mr. Charteris, as honorary attaché.

Mrs. Wayne Parker, wife of Representative Parker, and her daughter, Miss Alice George Parker, have gone abroad for some time.

Miss Winifred Mattingly is confined to her home by an attack of grip.

Miss Dorothea Draper and Miss Morgan, of New York, are visiting Assistant Secretary of War and Mrs. Oliver, and yesterday afternoon Miss Marion Oliver entertained at an informal tea complimentary to her house guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Reside entertained last night at a dance for young people complimentary to the Misses Shaw, daughters of the former Secretary of the Treasury and Mrs. Leslie M. Shaw, and Miss Moore, who is entertaining them during their stay in Washington. The Reside home, one of the most attractive newly built homes in Washington, was decorated very simply with palms and cut flowers, pink roses and pink shaded candles adding the only touch of color to the scene. A buffet supper was served, and music was furnished by a string orchestra.

Mrs. Reside received her guests in a gown of white silk, embroidered and trimmed with silk applique. Miss Reside assisted her mother in entertaining their guests. Among those present were the Misses Carbo, daughters of the Minister to Ecuador; Miss Calderon, daughter of the Bolivian Minister; Miss Underhill, Miss Perkins, the Misses Pilsen, Miss Alice Boyd, Miss Hemenway, Miss Knox, Miss Godoy, daughter of the counselor of the Mexican Embassy; Miss Frazier, and Miss Latimer, and Messrs. Albert, Jose, and Frank Godoy; Mr. Carbo, Lieut. Sweet, Lieut. Scott, Dr. Stephens, Dr. Alderman, Mr. Bazz, Mr. Howe, Dr. Dykes, Capt. Wigmore, U. S. A.; Lieut. Deffries, Dr. Kelly, and Lieut. Kelly.

The invitations to the wedding on February 15, of the Duc de Chaulnes and Miss Theodora Shonts, will not be sent.

Special Lessons in Hygienic Cooking. THE Southern Cotton Oil Co.'s culinary expert is giving a series of special lessons, using Snowdrift and Wesson Oil, to a. m. to 1 p. m. and 3 to 5 p. m. Delicious cakes and pastries served free.

GALT & BRO., Established Over a Century, Jewellers, Silversmiths, Stationers, 1107 Penna. Ave.

out just yet, owing to the serious illness of the duke's nephew. The cable brought the news of his illness yesterday.

Miss Perle Anderson has out invitations for a luncheon on Saturday, in honor of the Misses Shaw, and for Miss Cassidy, of East Orange, N. J., who will then be her house guest.

Mrs. H. T. Taggart and her daughters will be at home informally Tuesdays in February, at their home in Georgetown.

Mrs. William Alden Smith, wife of Senator Smith, will receive to-day at her residence, 1019 Sixteenth street.

Mrs. W. H. Rapley was hostess at a delightful at home yesterday afternoon, welcoming many callers.

Mrs. Teller, at the Cairo, will not be at home to-day.

Mrs. Victor H. Wallace will be at home, at the Marlborough, Saturday, January 25, for the last time this season.

Mrs. Frank Herbert Briggs, daughter of Senator William P. Frye, will receive to-day at the Hamilton.

Miss Margaret Lyle Vetch, a Washington girl of musical notoriety, was married at New Orleans, on Wednesday, January 15, to Mr. George Henry Palmer, of New York. The wedding was attended by the bride's brother, Mr. Percy H. Vetch, of this city, and the friends of the bride and groom in New Orleans. They will reside for the present at 717 St. Charles street, New Orleans.

Mrs. Palmer is well known here to the music-loving contingent of society, where she took an active part in musical entertainments of the Friday Morning Music Club, of which she was a member, as well as other musical events.

The Pastime Card Club was entertained at its inaugural meeting by Miss Helen Taylor, of 1607 Otis place, Mount Pleasant, Tuesday evening.

Those playing at the tables were: Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Amis, Jr., Miss Florence Williams, Miss Eola Rice, Miss Carrie Shattuck, Miss Mary Shattuck, Miss Sally Lacy, Miss Viola V. Graham, Miss Helen Taylor, Messrs. Ray, Gary, C. Skinner, H. Smithy, W. Jones, W. Thomas, G. Hutchinson, and E. G. Beck.

Mrs. Flint will not be at home to-day, because of the illness of her daughter.

Mrs. A. W. Patterson will be at home Friday, January 31, at the Rochambeau.

Mrs. B. Sinshelmer, and sister, Mrs. Adler, of Fredericksburg, will not be at home to-day, but will be at home the next Thursday in February.

Mrs. and Miss Smoot, wife and daughter of Senator Smoot, will not receive to-day, but will be at home the following Thursday, January 30.

Mrs. Silas Hare wishes to announce to her friends that she will be located in the Bond Building, New York avenue and Fourteenth street, to-day and to-morrow, in the interest of the National Junior Republic.

YOUNG WOMEN AT BANQUET

Christian Association Marks Close of Classes.

Novel Entertainment Is Conducted by Members—Construction of Building Urged.

A banquet to mark the close of its educational classes was held at the rooms of the Young Women's Christian Association, Twelfth and F streets northwest, last evening. Following the dinner, each class was, in the words of the toastmaster, Mrs. Herbert Day, called upon to do a "stunt."

Mrs. E. Smith, of the stenography class, dictated a speech to Miss Bessie Hart, who reproduced it upon a blackboard at the head of the table in hieroglyphics that resembled zodiacal signs, with a mixture of Greek and Russian.

The next "stunt" was a song, illustrated with military materials, by members of the military class. Miss Emmavie Rose represented the class in voice culture by reciting a poem of Kipling's. Others who recited were Miss Lydia Hughes, Miss Maret, and Miss Sybil Baker.

Miss Florence M. Brown, general secretary of the association, spoke at the closing, expressing the hope that the organization would increase its numbers, so that the people of Washington would recognize its efforts and contribute to the cause similar to that of the men's association.

Among those present were Mrs. Herbert Day, Miss Florence M. Brown, Miss Louise Dale Leed, Miss Emmavie Rose, Miss Katherine Lewis, Miss E. Smith, Mrs. G. H. Carter, Miss Hattie Steiner, Miss S. D. Hartley, Miss Maret, Miss Frances Jost, Miss N. A. Turpin, Miss Alice McLeer, Miss H. A. Olmstead, Miss Marion Emmons, Miss Alice H. Gibbs, Miss Ethel Hoffmann, Mrs. L. C. Williams, Miss Rosabelle Jones, Miss Julia Hoffmann, Mrs. A. A. Doolittle, Miss Bessie Hart, Miss Marion Fay, Miss Anna Hall, Miss Nannie Barndollar, Miss Lodona Sayre, Miss Marion Hopkins, Miss Marie Morse, Miss Sybil Baker, Miss Gertrude Morse, Miss Alice Coyle, Miss Vera Graves, Miss R. Janney, Miss Lydia Hughes, Miss Mignonette Buckington, Miss Elma Harvey, Miss Laura Shaw, and Mrs. H. F. Olmstead.

MISS BREWER A BRIDE.

Beallsville Girl Weds George Darby Jones, of Dickersons.

Special to The Washington Herald. Boyds, Md., Jan. 22.—A beautiful home wedding took place this afternoon at 3 o'clock, when Miss Alethea Brewer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Brewer, of Beallsville, Montgomery County, was married to George Darby Jones, the ceremony taking place at the old home of the bride's grandfather, George Brewer, with whom the bride has resided for ten years. The Rev. Walter P. Griggs, pastor of the Baptist Episcopal Church, of Poolesville, officiated.

The bride, as she entered the bridal room, was preceded by her two little nieces, Misses Blanche and Rebecca Griffith, of Washington, as ribbon bearers, wearing dainty little frocks of French batiste with pink ribbons.

The bride wore a very becoming suit of blue broadcloth, and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and anthurus. The maid of honor was the younger sister, Miss Nellie Brewer, who wore a gown of old rose panne satin, trimmed in lace and velvet, and carried roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones left for a Southern trip, and on their return they will reside at the beautiful home of the groom, "Edgewood," near Dickersons, Md.

Unity Council Holds Meeting. At the regular weekly meeting of Unity Council, No. 2, 1 O. S. J., held last night, several important measures were transacted, among which was the appointment of Messrs. A. F. Bowman, V. J. Armstrong, and J. I. Farr as delegates to the prohibition conference to be held in this city. A programme of musical numbers was rendered by members of the council.

SEEK THE POSITION

Applicants Are Out for Supt. Stuart's Place.

STATEMENT BY CAPT. OYSTER

President of Board of Education Asserts There Is No Vacancy, Thus Intimating that Prof. Stuart Intends to Hold His Office Permanently—Appointments, &c.

At a meeting of the board of education yesterday afternoon, in Franklin School, Capt. Oyster, president of the board, said he had received several applications for the position of superintendent of schools. "As there is no vacancy and it is not likely to be," said Capt. Oyster, "I will have these applications placed on file."

This was taken by all present to mean that Mr. Stuart would accept the position of superintendent permanently, although he has repeatedly made statements saying he would only accept temporarily.

A committee appointed a year ago to report on the best way of providing annuities for aged and infirm teachers, made its report. A number of plans were advanced, but no decision was reached. A special meeting of the board will be called in a few days to consider the matter.

A petition was received by the board from the school teachers of the District, which they asked be sent to Senator Burket. It was signed by about 800 teachers, and states they have perfect confidence in the board of education and believe it did right in dismissing Dr. Chancellor. Capt. Oyster said a number of letters of congratulation on the same subject had been received.

Promotions, Appointments, &c. The promotions, appointments, and transfers made yesterday were as follows:

APPOINTMENTS. Miss Willis Brown as teacher in the night school, Lower School building, from 10 p. m. to 11 p. m. and after January 3, 1908.

Miss Carolyn Leavitt Jones as teacher of the fourth grade, Addison School, to take effect on and after January 13, 1908.

Mrs. E. A. Martin as teacher of the first grade, Van Buren School, Ninth division.

Mrs. B. Beaman as teacher of the second grade, Wallace School, Seventh division.

Miss E. M. Monk as teacher of the fourth grade, Pender School, Ninth division.

Miss C. T. Jennings as teacher of manual training in the graded schools, to take effect on and after January 20, 1908.

PROMOTIONS. Mrs. M. N. Bridges, teacher from the fourth to the eighth grade, from Class 3 to Class 4, and transfer from the Addition to the Gales School, from the First to the Fourth division, as teacher of the ungraded class, to take effect on and after January 13, 1908.

Miss Grace Wanstall, teacher from the third to the fourth grade, and transfer from the Tenth School, First division, to the Addison School, First division.

Miss L. B. Holston, teacher from the second to the third grade, and transfer from the Corcoran to the Tenth School, First division.

Miss L. A. Bentley from the fourth grade to the third grade, and transfer from the Morgan School, Second division, to the Fourth division, to take effect on and after January 13, 1908.

Miss K. L. Thom, teacher of the fourth grade, to the model second grade, and transfer from the Tenth to the Tenth School, Ninth division.

Miss J. G. Lockwood, teacher from the third to the fourth grade, and transfer from the Greenleaf School, Eighth division, to the O'Rourke School, Ninth division.

Mrs. I. M. H. Childers, teacher from the second to the third grade, and transfer from the Taylor School, Sixth division, to the Greenleaf School, Eighth division.

P. E. Medford from teacher of manual training in the graded schools to teacher of working in the McKinley Manual Training School, to take effect on and after January 27, 1908.

Miss M. E. Yoder, teacher, from the third to the fourth grade, and transfer from the Leavitt School, Sixth division, to the Washington School, Second division.

Miss L. M. Butler, teacher from the first to the third grade, and transfer from Van Buren School to the Leavitt School, Ninth division.

Miss C. M. Harrison, teacher from the third to the fourth grade, and transfer from the Wallace School, Seventh division, to the Morgan School, Second division.

Miss M. R. Hardy, teacher from the second to the third grade, Wallace School, Seventh division.

TRANSFERS. Miss G. A. Phillips, teacher from the seventh grade principalship of the Hamilton School to the seventh grade, Taylor School, Sixth division, to take effect on and after January 27, 1908.

Miss G. A. Phillips, teacher of seventh grade, from Taylor to the Emory School, Sixth to Fifth division, to take effect on and after January 13, 1908.

Miss B. M. Knigton, teacher from seventh grade, Blair School, to the seventh grade principalship, Hamilton School, to take effect on and after January 27, 1908.

Miss H. M. Berry, teacher of the seventh grade, from the Taylor to the Blair School, Sixth division, to take effect on and after January 13, 1908.

Miss G. O. Carr, teacher from the Gales School to the Greenleaf School, Fourth division, as teacher of the ungraded class, to take effect on and after January 13, 1908.

REDUCE. Miss A. M. Dutton, teacher, at her own request, from the fourth to the second grade, and transfer from the Wrightman School, Second division, to the Taylor School, Sixth division.

Miss C. L. Jones, teacher from the fourth to the second grade, and transfer from the Addison to the Corcoran School, First division.

RESIGNATION ACCEPTED. Miss E. E. Stupler, second grade, model class, Leavitt School, Ninth division, to take effect on and after January 13, 1908.

NEW SCHOOL IS READY. Inspector Ashford Asks Commissioners to Inspect the Ketchum.

Snowden Ashford, inspector of buildings, has reported to the Commissioners that the Ketchum Public School, at Harrison and Adams streets, Anacostia, has been completed, and has suggested that the Commissioners inspect it before it is officially accepted from the contractor. This building cost $45,000, and has a gymnasium and a large assembly hall.

The plans for the two sixteen-room and one twelve-room public school buildings which were appropriated for by the last Congress have been practically completed, and bids will be invited shortly for the work of constructing them. One of these buildings will be located near Howard University, one on Washington Heights, and the third in Southeast Washington. They will cost approximately $100,000.

THOMAS P. HARTIGAN BURIED.

Widely Known Detective Monarch in Police Circles.

The body of Detective Sergeant Thomas P. Hartigan, of the Central office, who died suddenly Sunday night at his residence, 1025 North Capitol street, was laid in its final resting place at Mount Olivet Cemetery yesterday morning.

A short service was held at the former residence of the deceased, after which high requiem mass was said at St. Aloysius' Church, North Capitol and I streets, Washington Lodge, No. 15, B. P. O. E., and Washington Aerie, No. 25, F. O. E., of which Detective Sergeant Hartigan was a member, attended the funeral in a body. Almost the entire Central office detective force, including Lieutenant of Detectives Charles Peck and Detective Sergeant Joseph Carter, was present.

Two police sergeants and twenty-four privates, under direction of Capt. Byrnes, of the Sixth precinct, escorted the body to Mount Olivet Cemetery, a file of policemen marching on either side of the hearse.

Detective "Tom" Hartigan was one of the most popular detectives of the Washington police department. He was well known in police circles of other cities, where he had many detective and police friends. Several members of the detective force of Baltimore attended the funeral. The deceased is survived by Mrs. Hartigan and three children.

LEAVES TABLE 800 YEARS OLD

Will Made by Mrs. Semper Is Filed for Probate.

Daughter of Former President Tyler Makes Provision for Many Relatives.

The will of Mrs. Letitia Tyler Semper, daughter of former President John Tyler, and at one time mistress of the White House, who died about two weeks ago at an advanced age, was filed for probate yesterday.

It is dated July 23, 1902, and disposes of numerous articles of furniture to relatives and friends. To a grandnephew, Louis Armstrong Jones, son of Robert Tyler Jones and Sallie Graham Jones, Mrs. Semper bequeathed the proceeds of the sale of an invalid cabinet case, which she states was bought by her in the city of Venice in 1857, and was made 800 years before the period that inlaying was first done.

The testatrix also states that it is said to have belonged to the Council of Ten, the governing body of Italy, at one time. These proceeds are to be used for the education of the grandnephew at William and Mary College, in Virginia. The father of this grandnephew, Robert Tyler Jones, already named, the will states, "was born in the White House, carried the flag of the Confederacy up the heights at Gettysburg, was one of the five who reached Cemetery Ridge, and is now interred in Glenwood Cemetery."

All the money left by Mrs. Semper in the Riggs National Bank is bequeathed to this grandnephew, Louis Armstrong Jones, and a godchild of the testatrix, Thomas G. W. Settle, to be applied to his education at William and Mary College.

ARMY AND NAVY.

Army Orders.

Chaplain HENRY A. BROWN, from Third Field Artillery to Corps of Engineers, May 15, at Washington Barracks.

Capt. CHARLES H. HILTON, Coast Artillery Corps, from Forty-ninth to Twenty-sixth Company.

First Lieut. ARTHUR S. PICKEL, Fifteenth Cavalry, from Second to First.

Recruit FRANCIS P. ESIAN, infantry, recruit depot, Jefferson Barracks, transferred to Signal Corps, from Forty-ninth to Twenty-sixth Company.

Second Lieut. ABBOTT BOONE, from Second to Third Cavalry.

Following promotions Coast Artillery Corps announced:

Capt. JOHN P. HAINES, to major.

First Lieut. DAVID Y. BECKHAM, to captain.

Sgt. BERT A. LEWIS, Hospital Corps, from Depot of Recruits and Casuals, Fort McConell to Fort Totten.

Mail from H. H. HAINES, Coast Artillery Corps, detailed in Pay Department.

Private JOHN FERNBACK, Company B, Fifth Infantry, Plattsburg Barracks, transferred to general service, infantry, to recruit depot, Columbia Barracks.

First-class Private CHARLES FRIEDRICK, ordnance detachment, Signal, Hook Proving Ground, discharged from the army.

Private PHILLIP J. DENBY, Company G, Twenty-second Infantry, Cuba, transferred to Company I, Signal Corps.

First Lieut. EDWARD E. COPPOCK, from Third to Second Cavalry.

Following enlisted men from Washington to proper stations:

Sgt. LOUIS F. SYNDER, First Prison Company.

Private ROBERT OTIS KNIGHT, from Company F, Second Battalion of Engineers, Fort Monroe, to Company E, of that battalion, at Washington Barracks.

Lieut. Col. GE